DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 6 - 7 are objected to because the relative term "short" time is indefinite.

Preliminary Amendment:

Applicant preliminary amendment (filed on 09 Nov. 2001) cancels claims 1 – 5 and substitute claims 6 – 10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 6 - 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ellis et al (US 6,718,053) in view of Kuo et al (US 5,351,152).

Regarding claims 6 - 7, Ellis '053 teaches "a method for laboratory examination of a sample " (i.e. fig. 2) and "sequence of microscopic images of the agitated sample are recorded with short time illumination" (i.e. fig. 2, processor 23 and 25, illuminator 48). Ellis '053 does not particularly teach "sample can be artificially agitate/vibrate". However such features are well known and used as evidenced by Kuo '152 (i.e. fig. 6, vibrating platform 160). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify and replace the sample holder/sample stage of Ellis '053 with the vibrating platform as taught by Kuo '152 for the purpose of agitating/vibration of the biological sample for the specific application.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 8 – 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
